

Choral Festival at Brookhaven

Our Twenty-fourth Year!

7/10/2018

Edition 1, Volume 2

IT'S GETTING CLOSE!!!!

The Brookhaven Choral Festival starts next week! Hope you are registered – there is still time to sign up, either on our website, www.brookhavenchoral.org, or in person on the first night of rehearsal. We are once again at the Bayport United Methodist Church on Middle Road, and our concert will take place there as well. Know anyone else who would enjoy this experience? Let them know, and we will greet them with open arms! Tenors and basses are especially needed, but all voice parts are welcome.

MUSIC AVAILABLE THROUGH J.W. PEPPER

Once you visit our website, you will find a link to JW Pepper. All of the music, in the correct editions, can be found there, except the Bernstein Mass. They are out – but you can order it at sheetmusicplus.com. Make sure it is the Boosey and Hawkes edition, edited by Doreen Rao. A special note on the Bernstein Mass – we are not performing the entire work, but several sections of it. If you would like to get a head start on practicing – here they are:

4 (Prayer for the Congregation)

7 (Gloria Tibi)

8 (Gloria in Excelsis)

9 (Trope: "Half of the People")

13 (Sanctus)

This Mass, one of Bernstein's most famous choral works, has a very interesting history – but more about that soon!

BINDERS, RAFFLES AND T-SHIRTS – OH MY!

We will open on-site check-in on July 16th at 6:30. You will receive your binder, as well as raffle tickets to sell and t-shirts to order. We continue to sell raffle tickets for the financial support of this event. Great prizes this year! We will draw the winners on Sunday.
